HOW TO USE THIS PROPOSAL

This is your sales document, not a client deliverable. Replace the bracketed fields, delete the scoping notes in italics, and send it as a PDF. It is written to be read by a founder in four minutes, which is all the attention this decision usually gets.

THE ONE THING THAT CLOSES THIS SALE

Founders do not buy POSH compliance because it is virtuous. They buy it when they understand that the obligation already applies to them, that it applies per location rather than per company, and that the penalty escalates. Lead with the threshold, not with the policy.

Proposal for POSH compliance setup

Prepared by SKelite Talent Partners · [DATE] · Valid for 30 days

WHY THIS IS ON YOUR DESK

The Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013 requires every employer with ten or more workers to constitute an Internal Committee. The threshold applies per location, not per company, so an organisation with three offices of twelve people each needs three committees, not one.

Alongside the committee, the Act places specific duties on the employer: displaying the penal consequences of sexual harassment at a conspicuous place, running awareness programmes at regular intervals, orienting committee members, and filing an annual report with the District Officer.

Non-compliance carries a fine of up to Rs 50,000. A repeat offence attracts twice the punishment and can result in cancellation or non-renewal of your licence or registration.

WHERE MOST COMPANIES ACTUALLY STAND

In our experience the common position is not wilful non-compliance. It is a policy adopted from the internet, a committee constituted without the required external member, no awareness programme, and no annual report ever filed. That is a company that believes it is compliant and is not.

WHAT WE WILL DO

#	Deliverable	What it involves
1	Compliance audit	We review your current position against the Act: policy, committee composition, display requirements, training records, annual report history. You receive a written gap report with each item marked compliant, partial or absent.
2	Policy adoption	A POSH policy drafted for your organisation, your locations and your headcount, rather than a generic download. Reviewed with you before adoption.
3	Internal Committee constitution	Board or management resolution, appointment letters for each member, acceptance letters, and the constitution notice for display. Committee composition checked against every statutory requirement including the external member.
4	External member introduction	We identify and introduce a suitable external member, and support the engagement terms. [Delete if you are not offering this.]
5	Awareness session for all employees	One live session, [45/60] minutes, covering what constitutes sexual harassment, how to complain, who the committee members are, and the protection against retaliation. Attendance recorded and certified.
6	Internal Committee orientation	A separate session for committee members on their role, the inquiry procedure, confidentiality obligations and the annual report.
7	Compliance file	Complaint register, awareness register, display notice, committee records and the annual report format, handed over as an organised set you can maintain.
