This pack is different from the others. A recruitment template that is slightly wrong costs you a bad hire. A policy that is wrong costs you a statutory penalty, a tribunal, or an employee's trust. Everything here is written for Indian organisations between 10 and 500 employees under the position as at 2026, after the four Labour Codes came into force on 21 November 2025 and central rules were notified in May 2026. Read the Compliance Threshold Tracker first. It tells you which of these obligations you have already triggered.

POSH Policy

Pack 05. Compliance & Policy | Ref: P05-12

Prevention of Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace. Statutory. One version only.

THIS POLICY IS NOT OPTIONAL AND NOT VARIABLE

The Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013 applies to every workplace. An Internal Committee is mandatory at 10 or more workers, at every office meeting that threshold. Non-compliance attracts a penalty of up to ₹50,000, and repeat non-compliance can result in cancellation of licence or registration. Since July 2025, amended rules under the Companies Act require POSH disclosures in the Board's Report.

1. Policy statement

[Company Name] is committed to providing a workplace free from sexual harassment. Sexual harassment is a violation of a woman's fundamental rights to equality and to life with dignity, and will not be tolerated at this Company in any form, at any level, by any person. Every complaint will be taken seriously, treated confidentially, and inquired into fairly and within the timelines prescribed by law. Retaliation against a complainant, a witness or a committee member is itself gross misconduct.

2. Scope

- This policy applies to all women at the workplace, whether employed by the Company or not, including employees, contractors, consultants, interns, trainees, probationers, apprentices, daily-wage and contract staff, volunteers and visitors.
- It applies to conduct by any person at the workplace, including employees at any level, clients, vendors, contractors and visitors.
- "Workplace" includes the Company's offices, any place visited by an employee arising out of or during the course of employment, transport provided by the Company, off-site meetings, client premises, work-related travel, work events, and virtual meetings and work communication channels.
- The Company recognises that harassment can be experienced by any person. Complaints from men, or from persons of any gender identity, that fall outside the scope of the POSH Act, 2013 are dealt with under the Anti-Harassment & Non-Discrimination Policy with equivalent seriousness and process.

3. What constitutes sexual harassment

Sexual harassment includes any one or more of the following unwelcome acts or behaviour, whether directly or by implication:

- Physical contact and advances
- A demand or request for sexual favours
- Making sexually coloured remarks
- Showing pornography
- Any other unwelcome physical, verbal or non-verbal conduct of a sexual nature

The following circumstances, if they occur in relation to or connected with any act or behaviour of sexual harassment, may amount to sexual harassment:

- Implied or explicit promise of preferential treatment in employment
- Implied or explicit threat of detrimental treatment in employment
- Implied or explicit threat about present or future employment status
- Interference with work, or creating an intimidating, offensive or hostile work environment
- Humiliating treatment likely to affect health or safety

THE TEST IS WHETHER THE CONDUCT WAS UNWELCOME

Not whether the person accused intended offence, and not whether others would have minded. Conduct that was welcome between two people at one time may become unwelcome; what matters is the position at the time of the conduct complained of.
