Read this first. Ten minutes here saves a fortnight of rework.

WHAT THIS PACK DOES

Onboarding is where hiring spend either converts into a productive employee or quietly evaporates. Most Indian SMEs lose new hires not to competitor offers but to the first three weeks: no appointment letter, no laptop, no clarity on what success looks like, and a manager who is in meetings. This pack closes that gap and, since 21 November 2025, closes a statutory gap as well.

THE COMPLIANCE CHANGE THAT MAKES THIS PACK URGENT

Section 6(1)(f) of the Occupational Safety, Health and Working Conditions Code, 2020, read with Rule 6 of the OSH (Central) Rules, 2026, makes a written appointment letter mandatory for every single employee. Not just permanent staff. Probationers, fixed-term employees, contract labour and daily wagers all qualify. Employees already on your rolls without one must be issued a letter within three months of the Code commencing. Failure is a punishable offence with fines up to Rs 50,000 for a first offence.

Appointment Letter

Pack 02 — Onboarding | Ref: P02-04

Mandatory for every employee since 21 November 2025. This is the letter.

HOW TO USE THIS DOCUMENT

Field	Detail
Purpose	Issue a written letter of appointment that satisfies section 6(1)(f) of the OSH Code 2020 and Rule 6 of the OSH (Central) Rules 2026, and that sets terms you can actually enforce.
When to use it	On or before the date of joining, for every employee without exception. For existing employees never issued one, within three months of the Code commencing.
Who should use it	Drafted by HR, approved by the founder or authorised signatory, signed by both parties, one copy to the employee and one to the personnel file.
Output	A signed appointment letter carrying every prescribed particular.
Time to complete	20 minutes per letter once the template is set up

Step-by-step instructions

1. Confirm the employment type first — Regular, fixed-term or contractual. Rule 6 requires the type to be stated. It also changes the notice, gratuity and renewal clauses below.
2. Check the wage structure before you paper it — The Code on Wages 2019 caps excluded allowances at 50 per cent of total remuneration. If basic plus DA is below half of the total, your structure is non-compliant and the letter will record it in writing. Fix the structure first. Pack 06 has the calculator.
3. Fill every prescribed particular — Names and addresses of both parties, designation and nature of work, wages split into basic, DA and allowances, wage period, probation period if any, UAN or insurance number if available, and type of employment. Missing particulars are the whole reason the section exists.
4. Treat Aadhaar as optional — The final Rules soften the Aadhaar field: it is optional where the worker or employee is not comfortable sharing it. Do not make it a condition of issuing the letter.
5. Do not include a post-employment non-compete — Restraint of trade after employment ends is void under section 27 of the Indian Contract Act 1872. Confidentiality and non-solicitation survive; a non-compete does not, and including it signals that the rest of your paperwork is copied rather than considered.
6. Issue on or before joining, and get it back signed — An unsigned letter in your drafts folder discharges nothing.
7. Log it — Record issue date and signed-return date in P02-15. This is the evidence you will want if an inspector asks.

Employer EPF contribution	[AMOUNT]	[AMOUNT]
Gratuity provision	[AMOUNT]	[AMOUNT]
Total cost to company	[AMOUNT]	[AMOUNT]

Statutory deductions including employee provident fund, employee state insurance where applicable, professional tax and income tax will be made at source in accordance with law. Your remuneration is confidential to you.

3. Hours, leave and holidays

Your working hours, weekly off, public holidays and leave entitlement are governed by the [STATE] Shops and Establishments Act and by the company's leave policy, as amended from time to time. Your current entitlement is set out in Annexure C.

4. Statutory benefits

- Provident fund. You will be enrolled with the Employees' Provident Fund Organisation. You are required to complete Form 11 and to nominate a beneficiary.
- Employees' State Insurance. Where your wages fall within the coverage ceiling you will be registered under the ESI scheme.
- Gratuity. Payable in accordance with the Code on Social Security 2020. If you are appointed on a fixed-term basis, gratuity is payable on a pro-rata basis on completion of one year of continuous service.
- Nomination. You must file nominations for provident fund and gratuity. Keep them current; an out-of-date nomination causes real hardship to a family.

5. Probation and confirmation

[WHERE APPLICABLE] You will be on probation for [N] months from the date of joining. Your performance will be reviewed before the end of that period. Confirmation is by written communication only and is not automatic. The company may extend probation once, for a period not exceeding [N] months, by written notice stating the reason. During probation either party may terminate this appointment by [N] days' written notice or payment of salary in lieu.

6. Notice of termination

After confirmation, either party may terminate this appointment by [N] days' written notice or salary in lieu of notice. Nothing in this clause prevents the company from terminating employment without notice for misconduct, following the process set out in the disciplinary policy. Notice requirements are subject to the [STATE] Shops and Establishments Act, which prevails where it provides more.

7. Confidentiality and intellectual property

You will not, during or after your employment, disclose confidential information belonging to the company or to its clients. All intellectual property created by you in the course of your employment vests in the company. These obligations survive the ending of your employment.

8. Non-solicitation

For [N] months after your employment ends you will not solicit any employee or client of the company with whom you dealt materially during the [N] months before your employment ended.

DELIBERATELY ABSENT: POST-EMPLOYMENT NON-COMPETE

This letter contains no clause restraining you from joining a competitor after your employment ends. Such a restraint is void under section 27 of the Indian Contract Act 1872. Confidentiality and non-solicitation obligations are enforceable and are set out above. A non-compete clause in an Indian employment contract is unenforceable decoration, and its
